While the City Council supported improvements to I-70, they also requested that a modification be considered as the project moves into preliminary design. KDOT will analyze the requested modification that would eliminate a proposed entrance ramp to eastbound I-70 from 6th Avenue and provide an eastbound I-70 exit that would connect to Monroe Street north of 10th Avenue.